Recommendations:

A: Parent: Ruby has the ability and experience to solve and contribute ideas. She loves to share ideas with others and is open to listen to the different points of view of others and implements the best decisions so that everyone will work in harmony. Her simplicity characterizes her. Her empathy for others is essential to being a good leader.

B: Chapter: I've known Ruby for a couple of years, meeting her through FCCLA, and the first thing that comes to mind is what an amazing person she is. Her skills as a leader have grown tremendously. She is dedicated to her community, and in FCCLA with her outgoing personality she is able to bring people out of their shell and make them feel at home. She is resilient with every task. She is creative and kind. Ruby is the best!

C: Advisor: As a freshman, Ruby was very quiet, but ready to come out of her shell and try new things. She joined FCCLA and decided to run for Chapter Officer. That year she was our Vice President and started to blossom. I asked her if she would like to run for Region Officer and still willing to try new things, she went for it. She has served as our Region Reporter for the last two years and the quiet young lady no longer exists. FCCLA has allowed her to grow and become a confident leader.
