REGION BYLAWS OF California FCCLA

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the region shall be known as Region 5 of California FCCLA. The name FCCLA shall be used only by certified chapters in California.

ARTICLE II. SPONSOR

The sponsor of Region 5 of California FCCLA shall be the Family and Consumer Sciences Education Staff, California Department of Education. The California FCCLA State Office shall be located at the California Department of Education and function as a part of the Family and Consumer Sciences Education Program. (The Region Coordinator shall assist the State Advisor with leadership activities and other related responsibilities within the region.)

ARTICLE III. GOAL AND PURPOSES

Section 1. Goal

The goal of the region shall be to help students assume their roles in society through Family and Consumer Sciences Education in the areas of personal growth, family life, career preparation, citizenship, and community involvement.

Section 2. Purposes

The purposes of the Region shall be:

- A. To provide opportunities for personal development and preparation for adult life.
- B. To strengthen the function of the family as the basic unit of society.
- C. To encourage democracy through cooperative action in the home and community.
- D. To encourage individual and group involvement in helping achieve global cooperation and harmony.
- E. To promote greater understanding between youth and adults.
- F. To provide opportunities for making decisions and for assuming responsibility.
- G. To prepare for the multiple roles of men and women in today's society.
- H. To develop interest in Family and Consumer Sciences and related occupations.

ARTICLE IV.
AFFILIATIONS WITH CALIFORNIA FCCLA AND NATIONAL FCCLA

Regions shall be affiliated with California FCCLA and the National Family, Career and Community Leaders of America, hereinafter designated as FCCLA.

Section 1.

A region member shall be a member of California FCCLA and FCCLA.

Section 2.

The region shall remain in good standing by maintaining policies consistent with those of California FCCLA and FCCLA and by submitting the following annually to the State Office:

- A. Immediately upon election or appointment a list of the names and addresses of the region officers and advisors to the officers.
- B. Immediately upon adoption, any amendments to the region bylaws.

ARTICLE V.
AFFILIATIONS

California FCCLA shall consist of ten regions. Region 5 shall consist of the counties as specified by the State Association and shall consist of all of the certified chapters within the designated counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, and Santa Cruz.

ARTICLE VI.
CERTIFIED CHAPTERS

Section 1.

Chapters may be certified in middle, junior, and senior high schools, as well as regional occupational centers and programs (ROCPs), public and private, in which Family and Consumer Sciences (Consumer and Family Studies education and/or Family and Consumer Sciences Related Occupations) instruction is offered. The chapters shall be composed of no less than twelve students possessing the qualifications for membership.

Section 2.

Chapters may be organized as an integral part of the Family and Consumer Sciences program whenever the students, teachers, and administrators wish to incorporate California FCCLA as a strategy to strengthen the instructional program.

Section 3.

Application for affiliation shall be made on forms provided by the State Office and shall be signed by the president and the advisor of the chapter. The application forms shall be sent to the designated office together with the appropriate order of leadership packet materials.

Section 4.

When the application has been processed, a certificate shall be issued to the new chapter.

Section 5.

Chapters in good standing shall be those which maintain policies consistent with those of the region and state association and which submit the following to the state office:

- A. Prior to May 31 required affiliation documentation and appropriate order of leadership packet materials.
- B. Chapter membership roster, on which all names of chapter members, officers, and advisors are listed.
- C. Affiliation forms and materials.

Section 6.

A chapter can be put on probation for any one of the following reasons:

- A. Non-conformance to the region and state bylaws in any area.
- B. Failure to pay within 90 days outstanding debts of any nature owed to the state association by an individual or chapter.

Section 7.

Chapters will be notified in writing of non-conformance to bylaws or non-payment of debts by the State Office.

Section 8.

The probationary period shall be 60 days. The chapter shall be informed in writing of its probationary status by the State Advisor who shall set forth the beginning and ending date of the probationary period.

Chapters who are on probation will neither be allowed to participate in region, state, or national activities, nor will they be eligible to have candidates for office. If the cause for probation has not been corrected by the end of the probationary period, that chapter shall be suspended in accordance with Sections 9 and 10 of this article.

Section 9.

The State Executive Council shall have, upon recommendation of the State FCCLA Advisor, the power to suspend a chapter upon receipt of evidence of infringement of the provisions of the region and state bylaws.

Section 10.

The State Executive Council, on the recommendation of the State FCCLA Advisor, may suspend a chapter, thereby withdrawing its certification, for not conforming to the region and state bylaws. Chapters will be suspended for one year. Should a chapter be thus suspended, it must then make formal application to be reinstated, indicating the action taken to correct the infraction of the bylaws.

Chapters who are suspended will neither be allowed to participate in region, state or national activities, nor will they be eligible to have candidates for office. Chapters on suspension will not be eligible to receive special funding or state funding when funds are available.

ARTICLE VII.
STATE ADVISOR, REGION COORDINATOR, AND CHAPTER ADVISOR

Section 1.

The State Advisor shall be the Family and Consumer Sciences Education Staff member at the California Department of Education.

Section 2.

The Region Coordinator shall be chapter advisor to the Region President. The Region Coordinator shall assist the State Advisor with planning and conducting leadership development activities as well as other responsibilities within the region.

Section 3.

The Chapter Advisor shall be a certified teacher of Family and Consumer Sciences (Consumer and Family Studies or Family and Consumer Sciences Related Occupations) in a middle, junior, or senior high school (grades 6–12).

ARTICLE VIII.
